South Carolina Child Well-Being Coalition

Working to alleviate the effects of poverty and improve outcomes and opportunity for all children in South Carolina

The South Carolina Child Well-Being Coalition is a group of local and state agencies, community members and organizations committed to working collectively to mitigate the effects of poverty on children.

Our work will focus on evidence-based and promising policies and programs across a wide continuum to improve outcomes for children in South Carolina experiencing poverty.

VALUES THAT STRENGTHEN OUR WORK

Cultural Competence

We will ensure our work meets the social, cultural, linguistic, and geographic needs of children and families.

Strengthening Families

We will help families build protective and promotive factors that mitigate the effects of poverty and enhance well-being.

Prevention

We will use a multidisciplinary approach to help leverage resources and services to reduce the negative impact of poverty.

Equity

We recognize that inequalities exist and thus will target strategies to achieve universal goals for all children.
