

Home Visiting

Opening doors of self-sufficiency and well-being for South Carolina's children and families

Children's Trust administers the federal investment in home visiting for South Carolina – the Maternal Infant and Early Childhood Home Visiting (MIECHV) program.

HOME VISITING

Helping parents be their child's first teachers

Voluntary program for parents of young children offering support, mentoring and coaching in the home

- Building positive parenting skills
- Connecting families to resources and community support
- Increasing family self-sufficiency
- Identifying gaps of children in achieving developmental milestones

Ensuring health outcomes across two generations

Maternal, Infant and Early Childhood Home Visiting (MIECHV) in South Carolina

CHILDREN

 86% born at term

 88% received last recommended well-child visit

 97% screened for developmental delays

CAREGIVERS

 98% read, sang or told stories daily to their children

 89% had timely post-partum care visits

 93% screened for depression

EARLY BRAIN LEARNING

Helps children reach developmental milestones

RESILIENT PARENT-CHILD RELATIONSHIP

Helps families be healthier and stronger across a wide range of outcomes

Home visiting meets families where they are

THIS YEAR

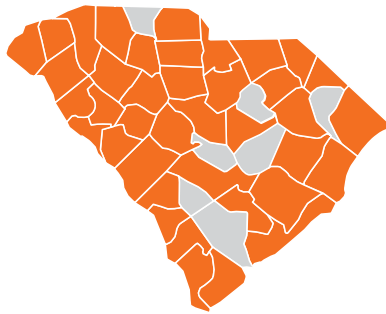

2,676 caregivers and children

17,814 visits

SINCE 2011

12,540 caregivers and children

149,951 visits

39 counties 15 local partners

COLLABORATION

Strong collaboration among service providers leads to better outcomes for children and families.

Children's Trust convenes the South Carolina Home Visiting Consortium to collaborate and strengthen the infrastructure serving all the state's home visiting programs. In addition to work funded through MIECHV, a wide array of home programs is at work in South Carolina, supported by public and private initiatives.

Beginnings SC

BirthMatters

Children's Trust of South Carolina

Early Head Start

Early Steps to School Success – Save the Children

Fact Forward

Family Connection of South Carolina

Family Connects

Family Solutions of the Lowcountry

Healthy Families of America

Healthy Start

Nurse-Family Partnership

Parents as Teachers

PASOs

Piedmont Community Action Spartanburg

S.C. Department of Education, Part B 619

S.C. Department of Health and Environmental Control

S.C. Department of Health and Human Services, BabyNet

S.C. Department of Social Services – South Carolina Head Start Collaborative Office

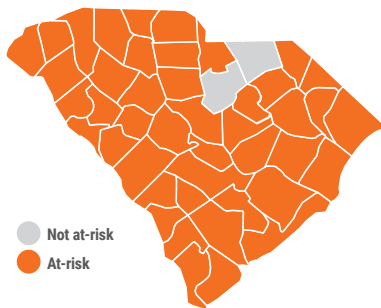

S.C. First Steps

S.C. Infant Mental Health Association – Help Me Grow

University of South Carolina Core for Applied Research and Evaluation

University of South Carolina Rural and Minority Health Research Center

Need outpaces available resources and services

● Not at-risk
● At-risk

44 of 46 counties

were identified as at-risk for prenatal, maternal, newborn, or child health outcomes

10% of eligible families are being served by home visiting services

address social determinants of health

coordination of services

increase awareness and access to home visiting in rural areas

scChildren.org

This resource is supported by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of an award totaling $8,220,943 with 0% financed with non-governmental sources. The contents are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement, by HRSA, HHS, or the U.S. Government. For more information, please visit HRSA.gov.

